‘Becky and the team were a joy to work alongside. Professional but flexible, full of joy and understanding of our needs and how to get the best out of our students.’

Blue Coat School, Coventry

Becky Drake has been songwriting for children for nearly two decades and has published and released over 80 songs which are used nationally and around the world in churches and schools.

Becky spent several years working as a primary school chaplain, leading regular collective worship across all the ages, and pastorally caring for the children and staff. She is passionate about the power and impact of music and singing within communities and believes that songs can change atmospheres, lift the spirits and draw people together.

The following packages are available to book, but do feel free to contact Becky directly if you'd like to have a conversation or tailor a package to suit your specific context - she is very happy to adapt or draw elements of packages together to make a bespoke day for you.

Values Singing Package

£495 for the day includes travel

Three songs
Whole-school assembly
Song resources to keep

Select three songs from the following themes:

- Kindness
- Patience
- Resilience
- Unity
- Creation Care
- Saying Goodbye (leavers)

Book songwriter Becky for a day in school, to teach your children three brand new songs, which will help embed key values into your school community. Come together at the end of the school day for an assembly where Becky will lead the whole school in singing together, bringing either a music-focus or a values-focus.

The school will be left with lyric videos, sheet music and backing tracks of all three songs they select.

The Kindness Package

£495 for the day includes travel

Two songs
Whole-school assembly
Song resources to keep

Book songwriter Becky for the day to focus on the theme of kindness. She will teach two new songs on this theme (one for infants and one for juniors) while also speaking to classes across the school on why kindness matters and how they can grow even better at being kind.

Becky will bring her puppet Rocky to meet the younger children and use drama to help older children engage with this topic. The day will end with a whole school assembly where children can share together the new song they've learnt, with accompanying actions.

The school will be left with lyric videos, sheet music and backing tracks of both songs.

Class Assembly Package

£495 for the day includes travel

One class focus
Drama piece
New song
Parents assembly
Song resources to keep

Book Becky for the day to work with one of your classes on creating a class assembly on one of the following themes: kindness, respect or patience. Becky will spend the day teaching a drama piece, a new song and writing prayers with the children. Every child will have a role to play.

Finish the day with an assembly where parents are invited to attend, and children lead the collective worship with all they have learnt that day.

The school is left with the script and the new song so that it can be used again in future years.

Meet a Songwriter: Aspirational Zoom

£100 for one hour

Zoom session
Inspiring resilience, hard work, perseverance
Q&A time

Book Becky for an hour to talk to a class or year group over Zoom about her story as a songwriter. Becky will cover themes of resilience, hard work and perseverance.

She will talk about the power of music, how she writes songs and why she loves writing songs for schools.

The children will have the opportunity to ask questions and will leave feeling inspired and motivated to pursue their dreams and to keep going.

“I’ve never heard 150 kids sing so loud, owning every word, and it’s literally changing the atmosphere in the school.”

— Music Teacher, The Wirral

Brand New School Song – Written For You!

£995

Bespoke song composition
Whole-school assembly
Piano and vocal recording
Sheet music

Ask Becky to compose for you a brand new school song. Becky will lead an assembly where she will speak about singing and songwriting and then will spend half a day with you consulting children and staff on the values, motto and culture of the school.

She will then compose the song for you within the following two weeks and the school will receive a simple piano and vocal version of the song with sheet music.

Bespoke School Song – With Professionally Recorded Single

£1,995

Two songs
Whole-school assembly
Song resources to keep

Book Becky to compose for you a brand new school song. Becky will lead an assembly where she will speak about singing and songwriting and then will spend half a day with you consulting children and staff on the values, motto and culture of the school.

She will then compose and record a fully produced studio song, with lyric video and a backing track, composed to a professional standard.

Children from the school will experience being recorded on the track, and the school will be left with their very own school single! This is an ideal purchase for a significant event, such as a school anniversary – or a song to unify several schools within a Multi Academy Trust.
